

Standards of Conduct for Players

The Northern Colorado Soccer Club - Bootleggers is organized as an educational and charitable organization to advance and foster the game of soccer among players under the age of nineteen years as well as to promote sportsmanship and the development of the individual soccer player to the highest level of his/her ability.

The following standards are established to govern the behavior of players before, during, and after soccer matches:

- I will not address remarks to opposing players, referees, coaches or spectators. This doesn't apply to genuine remarks of friendship, apology or acknowledgment of excellent play.
- I will not retaliate when fouled or ever engage in play with the intent to harm the opposition or a team mate.
- I will avoid comments or gestures that express disagreement with a referees call although I may ask for an explanation if I don't understand. I will never argue with a referee's decision.
- I will play against my opponents and not worry over calls made by the referee since these may distract me.
- I will control my temper at all times and will never use profanity during practice or games.
- I will convey a positive attitude towards my opponents and team mates and never belittle them.
- I will listen and be attentive when the coach is talking and ask ask questions if I don't understand.
- I will inform the coach when I'm hurt or am limited by physical or mental stress.
